

Mountain of Questions

Ask questions that...

- your child can understand
- your child can answer
- match your child's interest
- get a Discoverer's attention

The questions at the bottom of the mountain are the easiest for your child to respond to. The questions get more difficult as you go up the mountain.

